EDITORIAL.

"One cloud is enough to eclipse all the sun." - Thomas Fuller.

Bushwalking is essentially an adult sport and it is the intention of the Catholic Bushwalking Club to treat its members as adults and in return it expects all members to act as adults. Members must remember that they are CATHOLIC BUSHWALKERS and as such they are at all times representative of both Catholics and Bushwalkers.

As Bushwalkers, all members must remember that the three essentials of Bushwalking are a Sense of Humour, Courtesy, and Consideration. On trips, the whole camp is under the control of the trip leader and whether any member is irked by his or her decisions or not, they are still law as far as the Club is concerned. Members must be particularly careful as far as visitors are concerned. It is the duty of the nominator to help the visitors as far as possible and also to see that the visitors do not do anything which would inpute the good name of the Club.

While the primary reason for Bushwalking is self-enjoyment, it is impossible to enjoy oneself fully if in doing so we cause inconvenience to any other person. Thus we should at all times observe the norms of courtesy (and probably more) in such matters as retiring time, noise, activities and cleaning of campsite. Let people at all times remember with pleasure that the Brisbane Catholic Bushwalking Club camped on or near their property.

DEPARTURE: Tamborine Depot. NOMINATIONS CLOSE: January 18th.
TIME: 6.30p.m. LEADER: Jim Collins.

The Annual trip to the O'Reilly country takes place on the January Long Weekend. This trip needs no advertising as most members are familiar with the beauties of this part of the Lamington Plateau and those who are not, are only too anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity to investigate this wonderful area.

It is envisaged that a number of trips will be available to members of varying degrees of difficulty to some of the better (and lesser) known beauty spots in this area. Anyone wishing to lead a party on the Saturday or Sunday should advise the leader and committee viz By-Law 6

It is expected that nominations will be heavy and so it would be advisable to nominate early to ensure a seat and also maintain the sanity of the Outings Secretary. Anyone who has been on a previous trip to this area will be only too pleased to extol its virtues to anyone who may be curious.

Possible trips are:- Lower Morans, Valley of the Pines Lookout, Blue Pool - Stairway Falls, Tooloona - Wanungra - Bethongabel, Echo Point, Black Canyon, Cainbabe Falls, Lyre Bird Lookout, Castle Crag, Westcliffs and even Pacific Slopes.

MASS ON MT. BARNEY.
