PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

The Club was looking at incorporation a few years back to protect members from possible catastrophic legal action but it now seems that incorporation will not achieve this. Incorporation also includes much paper work, high fees and the possibility of fines. Binna Burra Bushwalkers have investigated insurance and have taken out a special Club and Association Policy from Suncorp which gives $1,000,000 public liability cover and $1,000 club property insurance. This means that each member is covered against legal action for bodily injury or damage to property brought by any person, whether another member or an outsider.

The cost is an extremely reasonable $70 for 100 members. I have taken the liberty of getting a cover note for a policy as described above. We could also possibly cover the club hut, but, as we don't own the land, we don't technically own the hut. With the Lower Portals now so accessible, the need for the hut has diminished. Also, if the hut suffers major damage, I don't feel as though we would replace it.

A motion will be put to the next meeting by which time the exact details should be known.

... Tim Apelt

COMING OUTINGS:

23rd/26th APRIL (Thursday to Sunday) - Anzac Day Long Weekend

GILLESPIE PASS - Throughwalk

Leader : Cathy McDonnell (349 5702 H)
Cost : $25.00
Meeting Time : 6.30pm, Thursday 23rd April
Meeting Place : Outside the Catholic Centre, Charlotte Street
Emergency Officer: Tim Apelt (343 4625 H)
Location : S.E. of Mt. Barney

This walk is out of the ordinary, in that it starts Thursday p.m. of this Anzac Day long weekend. Also, you pay for your own transport costs, meet at the cathedral as usual, but reimburse drivers yourself and pay $25.00 extra to the Club for costs.

You shall travel down Highway 6 to Makarora, spending Thursday night (or what's left of it) at the caravan park. Then off in the jet boat at 8am up the Makarora River to the Young. De-boat and up packs. There is 3 hours pleasant walking up the pretty, shady, gradual right bank of this river, making numerous photo stops and morning tea at the first grassy clearing. Lunch is at the junction of the north and south branches. Bring your Rid if you don't want to become sore.

After a leisurely halfhour here, he happens to want to wander up the watery way. In other words, walk up the south branch, following the markers up the right bank. It is steep the first half kilometre, with a good mud slide right at the commencement. But don't you worry 'bout that. You will find yourself continuing to climb, and when you rest in "The Bend", you automatically know that half this final section is behind you. Surrounded by waterfalls, this select party continues looking for the night's hut, searching, scanning the heights to the front, with the sides towering above. Lastly, Loretta (or Desley, or Wayne, Steve or Liz) sight the sun on the shining roof. A yell, cheering and the final assault. Firewood is collected on the move. Twenty minutes later, shoes off, ford the creek (cold at 7pm) and run up to the hut. Could take three attempts to light the pot belly stove, but it is drying warmth when it commences to roar.

Out with the food:- soup, roast lamb, peas, mash, instant pud and fruit. A feast for walking kings and queens. And there before us, is Gillespie Pass, 1600 metres, Mt. Awful always towering over us at 2,202 metres, camping at 1,000 m. A quiet still night, all the stars out to greet you - Milky Way will cut the deep black sky in two, Magellanic Clouds, Southern Cross and, of course, the Super Nova shining bright.

Next morning off early to cross the pass. Firstly, you must cross the creek, then along for half an hour. Then it's time for the up-ridge. Meander across its front zig, then zag. The snow-field opposite gets larger as you get higher. Mt. Awful gets better. Stark, grey, serrated mountain tops will surround you. Sharp, clear, shear. The valley floor below disappears. After several rest breaks, the troops will find lunch at the top. And what a view to greet you. Mountain tops, beyond mountain tops, all 360 degrees around you. And the ice-shelf on Awful, cold, solid, blue, split level and the waterfall from it. You had better bring along spare film as you will take too many shots here.

Follow along the side of the ridge, descending slowly along the scree. If lucky, you may even walk across patches of snow (and have a snowball fight), photograph Mt. Cook lillies and see some wildlife. Down the grassy slope, into the beech forest and to the floor of the Young Basin. The hard work is over and only two hours to the next hut.

For Sunday, you will follow Siberia Stream downstream to the cascades and out into the Wilkin for your ride home. Come along, only moderate experience required.

27th APRIL - Monday. Monthly Meeting

All are welcome. Come along and hear about our activities. Stay for coffee and bun. Doors open at 7.30pm, business starts at 7.45. Supper lasts till 10pm. Then go for a further coffee afterwards to a Coffee Shop.

Bring some money - nominate for some trips or socials. Buy some raffle tickets - Lent is over so shaped chocolates are the prize.

Break out!!!

* * * * *

30th APRIL - Thursday. BBQ

Cost : Free
Meeting Time : 6.00pm
Meeting Place : BBQ table, River Terrace, Kangaroo Point, just down river of the rotunda on top of the cliffs.

Bring along a friend, your meat, salad and drinks. Have a quiet barbie overlooking Brisbane as it turns on its lights. Spend two hours in the company of your friends, t h e n -

30th APRIL - Thursday. Bush Dancing

Cost : $3.50
Meeting Time : 8pm
Meeting Place : Blind Hall, corner Stephen Road and Vulture St., South Brisbane.

Yes! It's time again. Visitors, come along and learn. No knowledge required. No need to go to the BBQ first, but this is the idea.

* * * * *

We have received word from:- Mark Clarke, David Ewen, Maria de Luca, Russell Jones, V. Johnson, Mrs. Roland, Tony Smith, Donna B., Maria Hayes and Trish Murdoch, Kathleen Murphy, Paul Mullins and Dan Hodda. Good to hear from you. Come on an outing ...

1st/4th MAY (Friday to Monday). MT. KAPUTAR - Basecamp

Leader : Cathy Wood (Home 371 3522)
 Cost : $28.00
 Meeting Time : 7.00pm Friday
 Meeting Place : Inside the Cathedral Grounds
 Emergency Officer : Mrs. Egert (848 4918)
 Arrive Back : Monday night

Mt. Kaputar National Park is in northern N.S.W., about 50 Km east of Narrabri. We will be departing at 7.00pm on Friday night. (Please note the early time because it's a long drive).

Mt. Kaputar itself rises 1500m above the plains and the remnants of an ancient volcano provide spectacular views. The walks are not difficult but give an opportunity to see an area very different from South East Queensland.

We will be camping near the cars, so only a day pack is needed. The camping facilities are excellent - they even have hot showers! If anyone doesn't have a tent there are a couple available for hire from the club. It could be getting a bit cool down there by May so be sure to bring some warm clothes.

The main walks will be done on Saturday and Sunday and a short walk on Monday before heading home. Since it is such a long drive, we will attempt to take a mini-bus as long as we have sufficient people coming. It is a lovely area and this walk isn't done often, so take this opportunity to come along.

9th MAY (Saturday) - Social

The fancy dress, surprise 21st party is for Greg.

Leader : Michele Gomm (Home 356 2546)
 Cost : $7.00. Bring your own drinks and a plate with dessert. Meat, salad and rolls provided. Also bring a sensible $5.00 present.
 RSVP : By Friday 8th, so I can order the meat.
 Meeting Time : 6.00pm
 Meeting Place : The pink house, 110 Stewart Road, Ashgrove.
 Parking : In the Service Station down the road. Don't let Greg see your car.

Yes, folks, here it is, the social you have been waiting for. Analyse the words:-

Fancy Dress : Means "come in costume". Disguise yourself as your favourite "Greg".
 Surprise : Secret - he doesn't know about it.
 21st : His age - physical and mental.
 Greg : His Christian name.

Prizes for all - Best Dressed, Best Disguise, Best Look-a-Like, Best Dessert and all that sort of thing.

Come along, play the game. Visitors and new people welcome.

This is an official Club Social, not a private party. Any excuse is a good excuse for a title and theme.

* * * * *

10th MAY (Sunday) - Printing

Over at Greg's - 85 Illuta Avenue, Ferny Hills. Two shifts: the artists at 1pm and the collators at 3pm. Don't think about it ---- do it.

* * * * *

15th/16th MAY (Friday - Saturday) CLUNIE TO LINDESAY - Overnighter

Leader : Justin Tobin (357 4586)
 Cost : $15.00
 Meeting Time : 7.15pm, Friday (not Saturday as previously advised)
 Meeting Place : Back of Cathedral
 Emergency Officer : Dave Mort (351 6093)

Mt. Clunie, on the Qld/N.S.W. border, is normally visited by the Club as a throughwalk on the way to Mt. Ballow, so this overnighter is the chance for the day walkers in the Club to visit this mountain.

Friday night we will camp near the Boonah Border Gate to be up early to follow the rabbit fence up Clunie. Along the fence, views of Wilson's Peak can be seen. On the top of Clunie we will have views of Wilson's, Lizard Point, Roberts, Superbus and onwards to Maroon Dam, Lindesay, Ballow area.

Descending Clunie, we will follow the fence to Lindesay. Further along the fence good views of Lindesay and Ballow and a rare look at the back of Barney, as well as Edinburgh Castle, can be seen.

Water can be obtained along the way. It is suggested you carry at least 1 to 2 litres, not forgetting water for breakfast.

A medium overnighter well within the capabilities of most walkers in the Club. Nominate to me for an enjoyable and interesting walk.

... Justin Tobin

16th MAY (Saturday). Farewell.

Leader : Loretta Slattery (Home 369 1861)
 Cost : Bring your own meat, drinks and a dessert
 Meeting Time : 6 pm
 Meeting Place : 89 Lower Cairns Terrace, Red Hill
 The Aim : This is our farewell to Loretta who will go back to County Clare, Ireland. This is her own private function, not attached to the Club, but Loretta invites all her friends to come and see her off.

20th JUNE (Saturday) - COLONIAL BALL

Leader: Greg Endicott 351 4092 (H)

Ask Liz L., Gordon D., Patrice G., Justin, Sue S. and the rest. They will tell you how good the Colonial Ball is. (Open to everyone.)

The Story: It's at Churchie Hall, East Brisbane. Knowing that school, the hall must be good. Starts 6.30pm with our Pre-Ball Gathering.

Cost: ($17.00.

Preferably come in a colonial type costume.

Practice nights recommended:- Wednesday, May 27th; June 10th and 17th.

Our own B.O.B.O. practice - Saturday, 13th June.

What is Colonial Dancing? It is gentle bush dancing where partners are passed from one to another and not thrown. All ages are welcome, all types can participate, and all the more the merrier.

Pay your $17 as soon as possible to confirm your ticket. I've only booked 24 of them. Be early. More details when you book.

LEST WE FORGET

"ALL THE FINE YOUNG MEN"

They told all the fine young men, when this war is over,
There will be peace, and the peace will last forever.
In Flander's Fields, at Lone Pine and Bethsheba
For King and Country, honour and duty
The young men fought, cursed and wept and died.

They told all the fine young men, when this war is over
In your country's grateful heart, we will cherish you forever.
Tobruk and El Alamein, Buna and Kokoda
In a world mad with war, like their fathers before
The young men fought, cursed and wept and died.

For many of those fine young men, all the wars are over.
They found their peace, it's the peace that lasts forever
When the call comes again, they will not answer.
They're just forgotten bones lying far from their homes,
Forgotten as the cause for which they died.

BUSHRANGERS CAVE - Overnighter. 28th February/1st March

This overnighter was well worth it because Bushrangers Cave is something to see. Well, we started off from the cathedral and made it to the border gate in good time. From here, the seventeen of us followed the border fence for about an hour and before we knew it, we were at the cave. The cave is a huge incision into the rock formation creating a terrific spot for camping. A perfect spot for ghost stories, but most of us decided to hop into our sleeping bags and get a good night's sleep.

In the morning, we had breakfast plus a cuppa, and took in the beautiful views of Mt. Warning to our right and the Gold Coast to our front and the Pacific Ocean in the background. We left the cave at about 9am and it wasn't long before we made it to the Binna Burra graded track. We stuck to the graded track and took in some magnificent views on the way. We took a long leisurely lunch and got back to the cars in really good time to get back to Brisbane.

Thanks to those who came. I would love to see you come on more walks in the future. It's a cheap, enjoyable pasttime, with plenty of good company.

... Nathan

BOONOO BOONOO - Basecamp. 6th/8th March

"Water, water everywhere ... "

After a week of rain, it was under fine skies that 13 intrepid walkers left for Boonoo Boonoo, reaching the Boonoo Boonoo camping grounds at about 1am. After negotiating the Falls road - bad at the best of times - but after a week of rain .. still, the Sigma made it. Set up camp then off to bed to rise the next morning for our walk to the falls. Along the track to the lookout, then, would you believe, water pouring over the drop below. The most water I've seen at Boonoo Boonoo - a fantastic sight. After photographs were taken, off to the bottom of the falls. Here, huge granite boulders, rocky pools form a back drop for the falls cascading over granite slabs. Smoko here before heading back to the top of the falls for lunch and a swim.

The afternoon was spent exploring Bald Rock, a huge granite boulder on the Qld/N.S.W. border. Great views of Girraween National Park could be seen. Decided to camp here before heading into Stanthorpe for mass. Terry's cordon-bleu cooking was making me hungry but I held off till after mass. After mass, Tony Taxi decided we needed 5 litres of ice cream. Well, we did manage to eat it. Back to base for a late tea.

Sunday, up early to drive to the middle reach of the river for a walk downstream. The river flowing over granite, little rapids, swimming holes. Much calmer than the upper reaches of Boonoo Boonoo. Back to the cars for lunch and a swim. The granite slide was a popular attraction with Sue our catcher on the bank to ensue we stopped in time.

Boonoo Boonoo - it was the best I've ever seen it. The river was in full glory and we were sorry to say good-bye to a relaxing two days. On the way back to Brisbane, we stopped at Le Scoop for more ice cream. (The new pink place at Warwick).

Thanks to all those who shared the Wet Wilderness River with me: Terry, Brendan, Cathy Mc., Geoff, Pat, Jonas, Tony, Russell, Loretta, Desley, Richard and Sue.

... Justin

Who was the girl at the recent bush dance showing her support for the Wynnum football team ???

Surprise Cathy P. on the next social. Her secret is no more a secret. Surprise her ..... You chose a good day, Mary.

Greg E. just loves getting cards.

Nathey is walking around making rude hand gestures at everyone he meets. Next time, get someone else to hold the wood. Get well soon.

Ask John C. what happened to his heart.

Has a hole through it.

Don't worry, John. You have seven more.

BUSH DANCE - Saturday, 14th March

Twenty members/visitors went to Rosewood for this annual event, the best yet. With much noise and great motion, the party swung around the hall for four hours. A good preparation for the Colonial Ball and putting those Thursday nights into practice.

MT. BYRON F.M.R. DAY - 22nd March.

After meeting at Dayboro, the various vehicles left to travel up to Mt. Byron in a group. Mt. Byron is situated in the western area of Mt. Mee State Forest up near Dayboro. Reaching our destination, we discovered some gear for the stretcher had been left behind. A quick change to the itinerary and this was no problem.

We split up into 2 groups, one more experienced than the others. The less experienced group set up ropes in the tree around the cars. Here, under Michael Wood's supervision, they learnt how to prussik. Prussiking is a method of going up ropes using various ascending devices.

The more experienced group found a cliff and imagined that there was an injured person at the bottom of it. So we set up the stretcher to do a vertical lower. As usual, this proved to be quite an interesting exercise and those who attended learnt from it.

Summing up the day, I feel everybody who attended learnt from the day and what these training days are about. Don't be afraid to come along to your first - everybody has to start somewhere. Federation Mountain Rescue is a worthwhile organisation and need your support for you to get the most out of it.

F.M.R. MEETING - 24th March

A good attendance at this meeting saw us cover a lot of ground. First of all, it was decided that the F.M.R. trailer is to be sold. It has not been getting the use to justify its existence. Anybody who wants to buy a 14 x 8 tandem wheel trailer for $1,200 contact me.

Secondly, it was decided that a list be drawn up of what is to go out with the stretcher on exercise. Also, diagrams of how it is to be set up will be included in the stretcher gear.

At the end of the meeting, we drew up a new F.M.R. call-out list. I should have the list by the next meeting - any emergency officer should have one in case something goes wrong.

The next F.M.R. feature night is on April 28th. Communication and Orientation will be the theme. More information closer to the date.

I am still looking for a second delegate from our club. This involves meeting some great people from other Clubs about every 2 months and a training day every 2 months. Surely somebody out there has the spirit to give a bit more time to our Club and learn interesting skills while you are at it.

... Ken McCarron

Have you PAID your subs????? This is your LAST Jilalan if you haven't. Please pay up before the next printing. Come to the meeting (27th April) or post a cheque to B.C.B.C., P.O. Box 151, North Quay, 4000. All we want is a measly $15.00. You are warned.

ANNUAL MASS AND DINNER

- 4th April

A very good turnout.... thirtyfive at the mass. Our participation was with the singing and music, with John doing the readings. Carmel chose some good hymns. (I knew most of them from my parish). As we had sheets, our group let the locals know we were there. Thanks for the music, Carmel. Also, thanks to the Carmelite Fathers for letting us use their mass.

Afterwards we descended on Houdini's Restaurant. The the Club had pre-booked and pre-paid, the entree was ready for us upon arrival. Settled and seated, the entertainment started. Dave pulled some card tricks on us. Our table was a bit slow initially to respond, but when he picked on Marina with the old changing coloured balls trick, and on Monica with the "Pick a card, any card" routine, we warmed to the magician's art, so much that Justin, Paul and Martin, didn't leave till 11.45pm.

The Beef Wellington, followed by Pavlova, was excellent. The coffee - endless - --- a night to be talked about.

* * * * *

The Senior Vice-President (Heavenly Affairs) is too valuable to lose. Visitor Nick sacrifices himself so we can keep Justin. Read Tony's Gap Creek Falls report.

Congratulations to: Tony & Sandra Wood on their marriage on Saturday, 11th April. The Club's best wishes go with you.

Why does it take Cathy McD Cathy McD two two Application Forms to renew renew her membership membership ????

Mlle. is a brave soul. Confronted the "Man in blue" robber at her school. He got away in a waiting taxi to do two more schools that morning.

Who is that masked man - or should I say, that "unmasked man". A new look J.C. in the Club. Next he'll be dying his hair and having a perm!!!!

GAP CREEK FALLS

- Sunday, 12th April

About 45 people left the cathedral that day and enjoyed a very pleasant drive up to Cunningham's Gap. By about 10.30, we had all arrived at The Gap and started our walk from Cunningham's monument. It was graded track all the way to the falls and everyone seemed to manage the walk O.K. Sometimes we stopped and admired the view and also looked at the beautiful ferns and wildflowers. By mid-day, we arrived at the falls. From the falls you got good views of Castle, Boar's Head and Kangaroo Mountain. You couldn't have asked for better weather for views.

Some had a long leisurely lunch at the falls and others went down a side ridge to an enchanting little spot that overlooked a very inviting rock pool. At this spot we enjoyed lunch, a cup of tea and - for a few very game ones - a swim in the cool rock pool water.

The walk back along the track to the cars took a little longer than the track walk in. But morale was high and it wasn't long before we got back to the car park.

Thanks to all who came and I hope you come on more walks in the future.

... Tony Young
