Ball Practice

For all those going to the Colonial Ball, as well as those who want to, but have not nominated, practices commence at 7PM at the Blind Institute Hall Hubert Street, Woolloongabba (NOT the bush dancing hall at South Brisbane). The dances are not bush dances, though similar. So as not to spoil the actual night of the Ball for others, come and learn the steps. Hubert Street is one way, from Hawthorne Street to Stanley Street.

12th June

Friday 7PM

13th June

Saturday

Ball Practice

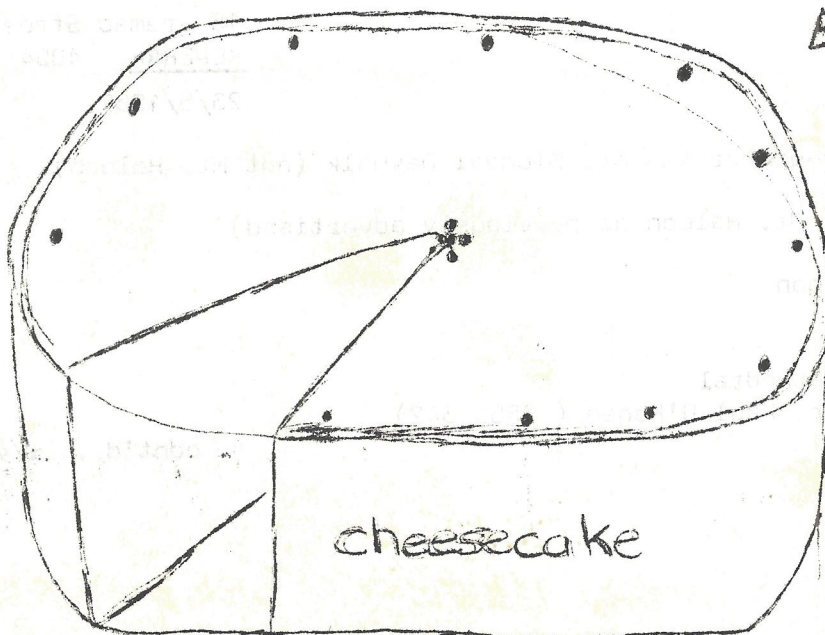

The idea is the same as for 10th June above, but location is top floor Catholic Centre, second gate St. Stephen's Cathedral, Charlotte Street. Climb the steps outside (fire escape) to the top floor. Commences 1PM.

15th June

Monday

Meeting

I invite all the visitors to come. Hear about our coming events, talk to the leaders, ask questions. Suss out our mood. Doors open 7.30PM, business commences 7.45PM. We normally go home (after supper of course) at about 9.30PM. The Catholic Centre is security conscious and if you come late, climb the fire escape to the top floor, or ring the bell and wait 5 minutes to be escorted up.

ThursdayBush Dancing

Not to get too exhausted by our heavy social commitment, a few of us go to the (and confusion reigns) Blind Citizens Hall, Vulture Street and Stephens Road intersecting South Brisbane. Commence at 8PM and the cost is $3.30. Energetic and warm for those winter nights. M A L E S required.

19 June

FridayMovie

You are off to see a movie about a murder in a monastery during the XIV th century. An acclaimed movie - The Name of the Rose. Meet outside the Hoyt's Wintergarden in the middle of the mall at 8PM. Friday night is packed so don't be too late. Cost $8.00. Maybe go to the Copacabana afterwards for pavlova and coffee.

20 June

SaturdayColonial Ball

This announcement should be for the new visitors. Members are used to my overkill by now. So, for those who haven't heard yet, we are attending the Colonial Ball, an evening of sociable bush dancing, dressing up, fun and exercise. All are welcome. Practice nights have been arranged, June 10th, June 13th and June 17. Phone me now (Greg - 351 4092 (H) 231 9557 (W) ) if you wish to attend. All the boring details when you ring.

Leader: Liz O'Regan

Cost: $8.00

Time 7.45AM

Place: Rear of Cathedral

Emergency Officer: Paul O'Regan ( 3555 342)

cont'd .... /4

Mt. Michael is situated just south of Gatton. We'll be leaving the cars beside the Junction View Hall and following a 4 wheel drive track most of the way up the mountain.

It's a steady climb, but the almost constant, glorious views make it well worth a little effort. We'll have a leisurely lunch on top, with plenty of time to take in the scenery from a number of top vantage points.

Why not make a weekend of it? Come to the Colonial Ball and then enjoy the fresh air and warm, winter sunshine of the Mt. Michael Daywalk.

Liz O'Regan

4-5 July

Saturday/Sunday Panorama Point

Overnighter

Leader: Geoffrey Egert ( 848 4918)
 Cost: $10.00
 Meeting Time: 7.20PM - after 6PM Mass at Cathedral
 Meeting Place: Cathedral Grounds

We shall depart from the Cathedral at 7.30PM and drive via the Cunningham Highway to Aratula. Just outside the township of Aratula we shall turn off the highway and head another 20km to that section of the main range which houses Panorama Point. Arrival time at the designated camping spot is estimated to be about 10PM.

On Sunday morning we shall rise early and after a "hearty" breakfast drive in a further kilometre to the commencement of the walk. As we walk along the road we should have clear views of the Main Range including Spicers Peak, Mt. Huntley, Mt. Asplenium ect. Panorama Ridge itself is a steady climb and should prove testing for new walkers. However, the leader will not be perturbed if we do not reach Lower Panorama Point itself, as the views from Panorama Ridge of the surrounding terrain are quite spectacular.

You will require camping gear including a warm sleeping bag, breakfast lunch and 3 litres of water.

Apart from throughwalks, it is not often that walkers have the opportunity to view this part of the Main Range. If you wish to participate in this walk, then talk to the leader at the next meeting.

Geoffrey.

Once a year Federation Mountain Rescue (the rescue arm of the combined bush walking clubs of South East Qld) has an annual training weekend. It is open to visitors, newer members, and I might add, some of our faithful could learn from it. Brush up on techniques, learn new skills, find out what not to do when on an outing. Learn and enjoy yourself while doing it. Location is the Upper Portals, on the small reaches of Mt. Barney Creek. There will be a full simulated rescue using radios, helicopters (try for a ride in one) and all that.

Friday/SundayThroughwalkRichmond to Collins Gap

Leader: Pat Lawton 381956 (H)

Cost: $14.00

Emergency

Officer: Tim Apelt 343 4625

Location: Qld/N.S.W. Border

Meeting Place: 7.15PM inside the Cathedral Grounds.

After leaving the Cathedral at 7.30PM (sharp) we will drive via Rathdowney to Border Loop on the Lions Road to Kyogle.

The walk will start at the Tick Gate on the Lions Road and will follow mainly the Border fence. The interstate rail line passes through a tunnel at the Border Loop and we will cross over this shortly after the start of the walk. With a little bit of luck we might even see a train. From there on it is up and down (with some big ups!) passing through open forest and rainforest with good views into the Running Creek valley.

During the morning we will pass the Falls on Long Creek, and if time permits we may drop down for a closer view of these Falls. Some time during the afternoon we will pass through a clearing, from which one obtains one of the best views of South East Qld.

Camp on Saturday night will probably be along the fence (or could even be at an old rabbit board hut near Mt. Tanna). On Sunday we will continue along the fence, taking a detour to avoid the steep climb over Mt. Tanna. As we near Mt. Lindsay we will drop down from the Border fence and head across country to the rabbit board hut at the base of Mt. Lindsay. From there it is an hours walk out to the Mt. Lindsay Highway. After another car shuffle we will then head back to Brisbane.

Even though the walk is relatively long, it is a moderate walk with excellent views. Water will have to be carried for the trip, however there is a possibility that it can be obtained at one of the rabbit board huts.

Binna Burra Bushwalkers will also be doing this trip on the same weekend - however starting from our finishing point. Hopefully along the way we will meet one another and maybe have a chat and a goodies stop. Probably we will be able to arrange a car shuffle to suit both ourselves and our friends from Binna Burra Bushwalkers.

Congratulations, Cathy.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I have been visited by the Suncorp Insurance representative and have tentatively taken out the same policy as Binna Burra Bushwalking Club, that is $1,000,000 public liability cover and $1,000 club property insurance (for printing equipment, at G. Endicott's address). This means that each member is covered against legal action for bodily injury or damage to property bought by any person, whether another member, visitor or outsider. If you are not a member or have not paid your subscription, you are not covered. If you are married and only pay $15.00 subscription, your spouse is not covered.

The cost is $70.00 and will be voted on at the June meeting.

I would remind everyone that we take risks on every walk. There maybe slippery rock, steep slopes, loose rocks, snakes, leeches, ticks, stinging nettle, stinging tree, wait a while, lantana, dust, fire, storms, frost, deep water, fast flowing streams, cliffs and you may get lost or be led astray. An outings description is a very subjective description, subject to the experience of the walker, the memory of the writer and the weather conditions. If you are not willing to accept these risks and be prepared to take the responsibility yourself, please take up a less demanding past-time.

Despite all this, bushwalking is a very rewarding experience which I would recommend in some form to everyone. Happy walking.

Hot On The Scene

By your Queensland Day Reporter

While J.C. and others were having their last cuppa for the evening, I was walking hand in hand towards the William Jolly Bridge, after viewing "Away", a great true to life play at the Cultural Centre, commenting on how the smoke from the fireworks four hours earlier was still in the air over the river, being a cool wet night the density holds it there, when the sirens came from Roma Street, there I said "Fire", and next "THE CAR", so ran across the crowded Peel Street to Hislop & Son, Undertakers to see the red glow, and by now the two fire engines and equipment van had arrived, did a slow U'ie over the traffic island making us do a quick jump into Hislop's yard and within moments the big red monster was in Fleet Lane while his mate set up the two hoses, blocking Peel Street as the ladder van arrived, now with the Police Q car and all, starting to redirect traffic, and more sirens as the extra appliances and another ladder van came up Hope Street dodged around the train bridge and down to "Generator Sets" again setting up more hoses, this time at the front of the building, but my car was OK, so I went back to look through the now "out" building and finally decided to walk around to the bridge side only at this late stage finding out it was the best vantage point as we could stand in a park and look straight into the once burning back of the shed, where damping down was still going on with Police Scientific Squad already poking around.

Geoffrey Egert has informed the Club that all his friends call him Ge-O-Fray. Anybody considered a friend of abovementioned should now call him the below name.

PAST SOCIALSSurprise 21st party for Greg 10th May

Though the May weather affected us, it did not dampen our spirits or ourselves. Steve kindley cooked the meat under the awning, while Daniel Gorden watched (and helped) and Marie and Cathy kept the conversation going. Sue was always in the background quietly helping. Then all gravitated inside to the salad bar, which took Michele and some of the already mentioned, and Loretta, all afternoon to cut up. Once this was devoured, conversations continued indoors.

Sometime during the night "Pass the Parcel" was played, Eugene having to answer some pretty difficult praises, Russ getting caught by surprise and even me having to say which cricketers are named "Greg".

Only Tony Y could arrive as Greg Newcombe, John's brother. Best fancy dress went to Russ, neatest to Sue, most imaginative to Loretta and Marie.

Thank you, Sue, for allowing us to use your house and your work, and to Michele, who organised it all.

Carmel, what about the 4 trombones.

KULTURE MNOTES

The "Name of the Rose" is set in a Benedictine monastery in Northern Italy in the mid-14th century. William of Baskerville and a young novice, Adso of Melk (both Franciscians) enter a monastery to attend a clerical - academic debate. Within days of their arrival several deaths occur. William and Adso are drawn into the mystery surrounding the deaths and seek to discover their cause. The film is very interesting and entertaining. For mystery, intrigue, romance and 'something different' don't miss "The Name of the Rose".

SAINT
YOUR PRESENTS

MT. ZAHEL    DAYWALK    24th May, 1987.

Leader: Geoffrey Egert

On Sunday 24th May, 22 "kindred souls" set forth from the Cathedral to conquer Mt. Zahel. Two walkers who turned up for the walk but had not nominated were fitted on the roof rack of Terry's vehicle.

We proceeded to Laidley via the Toowoomba Highway. At Laidley, the troops stored up various goodies for the walk including freshly baked bread from the bread shop.

We arrived at the foot of Mt. Zahel about 10AM after having flogged the Mulgowie-Townson Road about 20km outside Laidley. Terry was so enthusiastic about this walk that he bought along Paul Tracy. Paul appears to be quite a legend in the annals of the club history. It did not take too long to work out the reasons for this since Paul kept within the first 5 to 6 walkers for most of the day despite the fact that this was his first walk in 18 years. However, Terry was so daunted by the physical nature of this walk that he decided to stay and play with some "colouring-in" books and some Brendan. Therese, nonetheless, carried on the fine walking tradition of the Sheehan family and also walked in the first five walkers for most of the day.

As we proceeded up the long ridge towards the minor peak of Mt. Zahel, we had clear views of the surrounding terrain. Morning tea was taken at the height of 550m at 11.15AM. Justin did not allow the altitude to affect his better judgement. His gentle overtures to a well known young lady in the Club soon dissipated when Desley produced her specially manufactured scroggin. I have always said that Justin had his priorities in perspective.

After morning tea we climbed a number of false peaks before reaching the minor peak at 12.45PM. Newer walkers such as Michael, David, Louise, Russell, John and Mark all performed creditably. At the minor peak we lunched upon assorted goodies and boiled the traditional billy. From here we were treated to excellent views of Mt. Beau Brummell, Mt. Maroon and Mt. Barney to the east. To the south, we viewed Mt. Lowe and the Mistake Range. We departed from these loft heights at 2PM. During our descent Eugene decided to test the tenacity of a barbed wire fence and ended up horrifying the leader when some "tomato sauce" appeared on his left leg. Desley appeared to have so much time on her hands that she borrowed Gordon's working gloves and did some gardening on the way down. (Gordon would you believe the excuse "I was saving my delicate little fingers to type this which well, O)

Most of the walkers arrived at the cars at about 4PM. Certain others who were not paying attention on the trail arrived at 4.20PM. This leader extends humble apologies to Sue and Gordon.

Thanks to the drivers, Gordon, John, Russell and Terry.

THOSE WHO WALKED WERE:

David Dobson, Eugene Behan, Michael Breen, Gordon Denkes, Mark Dackevio, Geoff Dower, Juston Tobin, Sue Herron, John Gormley, Phil Murray, Desley Pedrazzini, Ross Fels, Gabriel Romazuera, Russell Jones, Louise Horrigan, Kem McCarron, Russell Robinson, Philip Crupi, Nathan Tobin, Therese Sheehan, Paul Tracy.

THOSE WHO DOODLED IN "COLOURING IN" BOOKS AND HAD A RESTFUL TIME WERE:

Terry and Brendan Sheehan

Receipes for Jilalan - to go into our "Food and Wine" Section. Have you eaten out - teel us all about it. Seen a good movie or play - tell us!

Nominations are called for a position on General Committe. New blood is required. Someone with ideas? Don't be overawed, you can do it. You don't even have to be a walker. Nominate at the meeting.

Welcomed at the May meeting:

Kev Murphy, Chris McKinnon, Rita Icheda, Laurie Adcock, Bruce Normyle, M. Dackevies, David Dobson, Louise Horrigan, Russell Jones.

The first Brisbane performance of the complete version of Monteverdi's 1610 Vespers took place in the neo-gothic splendors of St. John's Cathedral on Saturday, 30th May.

A capacity audience paid tribute to the conductor, whose deep understanding of the complex tapestry of vocal and instrumental lines was reflected in his interpretation and the response by the combined forces of the University of Queeland's Department of Music and University Musical Society which includes Carmel McNeill.

Dr. Spearitt adopted a clear approach to this 17th century music. The voice parts were not heavily doubled by instruments, but Monteverdi's demands were obeyed.

The modern orchestra was used sensibly with the oboes taking the old cornetti parts: the continuo was simple in realisation.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

It is with deep remorse I pen these few lines. Can you image my abject horror to find on Page (3) of the May Jilalan the President prepared to sell Mt. Samson to the Japanese. Why? Because on Easter Monday he found the variety of scunge in great profusion. It's not on every walk you can see at close quarters wild raspberry, lawyer vine, lantana and get cobblers in the hair.

I'm sorry he must be disappointed he didn't see any gypmie or was he too carried away to mention it, and what about thoses rare views on top, those views of the Pine Dam, Glasshouse Mountains and Moreton Bay Islands.

I think this would be a walk our forfathers would have rather been on instead of fighting in the trenches undergoeing extreme torture as P.O.W.s at the hand of the Japanese to keep this land free. Does he not realise that in the future Mt. Samson might just be the last non-Japanese land. The last bit of Wilderness to escape to.

So please let us hear no more of selling land to the Japs or any other foreign country.

Too much has been sold already.

PROSPECTING NOTES.

Gemstones were formed in the volcanic era, or with subsequent volcanic activity. They formed into crystalline structure, are denser than their surrounding material, and have perfectly flat sided when cut. Once the volcanoes have dried up, rains commence to erode their mountain slopes, washing the surface dirt, stones and rocks down into the valleys. With millions of years of this action, not much is left of the mountains and the creeks, rivers and valleys silt up. This ilt is sitting on top of the original valley floor. So the gemstones are washed out of "then tha mountains" into the silted up valley. All you need to find them today is a hole and a mining licence. You dig down through the surface soil, reach a layer of coarse pebbles and gravel (your gem bearing layer) until you reach the old original valley floor. Stop, and start panning.
